Buzzy Beverly Hills eatery Mirame is coming to Springline in Menlo Park

by Linda Hubbard on May 24, 2022

Acclaimed Beverly Hills restaurant Mirame is coming to the Springline development in Menlo Park as its latest and last retail tenant. With Mirame, Springline is now 100% leased on the retail side.

Founded by Michelin-starred chef Joshua Gil and Matthew Egan, Mírame is rooted in contemporary Mexican cuisine with a California sensibility. Chef Gil's ever-evolving, ingredient-driven menu embraces regional Mexican flavors using local and seasonal influences.

The unprecedented 'farm to bar' beverage program offers a robust collection of genuine spirits and truly artisanal products, notably mezcals (pictured right) along with an extensive wine list sourced solely from Mexico. Mírame will be the first Bay Area restaurant to serve a 100% Mexican wine list.

Gil, who earned a Michelin star for Joe's Restaurant in Venice, CA, will be responsible for the menu at Mírame at Springline. There are plans to bring popular Mírame dishes like the crispy salmon-skin chicharrones dipped in garlic aioli and fried shrimp taco with pineapple chipotle salsa and wasabi crema (pictured top) to the Menlo Park location.

Lunch and dinner will be served, and outdoor dining will be available.

Robin, Proper Food, Che Fico, Burma Love, Barebottle, Andytown along with Canteen Next Door and Canteen Cafe are eating and drinking establishments previously announced as Springline tenants.
